

AGENDA

Yola Website Introduction (Part 1 of __)

February 10, 2011-- HDF 190: FLITE

2:00-3:15 p.m. 2nd 1/2 of class

Materials: Classroom (media is ready), personal computer and hookups

2:45pm

Introduction

Introduce purpose of Yola website:

- 1) Professional environment to promote/show your work that you will be doing in the class
- 2) A great place to put everything so that it is with you always "virtually and on the go"

2 mins

2:47pm

Presentation

Below:

20-25 mins.

1) Log into Yola

2) Create a page link

Enter full name, email address, create password

3) Choose "Personal" template

4) Choose a professional style background

5) Set Up Website

(Labeling the pre-existing boxes)

<Name>

Tabs-----

<Top 5 Strengths>

<Top VIA>

About Me:

My name is <>. I am a <majors>, with a <minor>.

I am currently in my <school year> studying at the University of Rhode Island.

*This website is currently under construction

<Photo of Yourself>  make sure it is PROFESSIONAL

The Tabs:

- 1) Learning Contract
- 2) Resume
- 3) Strengths
- 4) Leadership Inventory
- 5) Blog
- 6) Contact Me

Just setting it up and getting it “ready to go”, for when all of these things you will be doing are done and ready to post up... REMEMBER: this website is PROFESSIONAL!!!

Be sure to PUBLISH the site each time you edit/complete, so that we will all be able to see it! (the 1st time you would need to create your URL address-- remember professional)

NEXT:

<Show Powerpoint Presentation Tutorial>

How to post your web address into Sakai!

3:10pm	Wrap-up By the end of class the “template website” that will be created live in class will be up, so that they can use it as a reference for what it should look like. I’ll post the URL on Sakai after it is made in class	2-5 mins.
3:12pm	Check-in/ Class Announcements Check in- possible energizer activity Address any student questions Announcements	2-5 mins.
